SUMMARY

Work under the direction of the Enforcement Division Supervisor and Deputy Director. Incumbent receives, investigates, prioritizes and responds to calls related to public and animal safety. Calls for service range from; barking and sanitation; animals running at large; injured domestic animals and wildlife; aggressive and biting animals; cruelty, neglect and hoarding cases; and calls regarding compliance to City and State regulations. Incumbent determines levels of intervention needed for each unique situation from educating public, removing animals from properties, issuing court summons for non-compliance with City Ordinances and submitting formal charges for violations of State Statutes. Maintain accurate record keeping and documentation of all interactions with public and intake and redemption of animals. Evaluate animal behavior and medical health to determine when animals require vaccinations / treatment / veterinary care and/or euthanasia.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES include the following. Other duties may be assigned.

- Work alone with minimal supervision. Use police dispatching equipment, police codes, and criminal justice database Spillman and CAD on a daily basis to accurately receive, send and investigate calls. Review and prioritize all incoming calls based on facts unique to each individual situation. Respond to calls with the required urgency and priority. Calls will range from low priority non-urgent calls to urgent priority calls requiring immediate response from the Animal Control Officer and FW Police Officers.
- Capture unconfined animals, pick up confined animals and dead animals, and provide animal rescue and citizen service assistance according to policy. Determine when a situation requires the utilization of Chemical Capture Equipment and other nonlethal capture techniques. Apply the Tufts Animal Care and Condition (TACC) Scale used by the National Animal Control Association to provide a useful and objective system for evaluating animals. The TACC is used to determine body condition, weather safety, environmental health, and physical care to appropriately score the various elements to objectively determine if removal is warranted and needed. Document the scores for each element and the conditions present to necessitate the animal being removed from the property.
- Conduct a thorough investigation for all calls received and determine the appropriate course of action. Deescalate hostile situations and determine when other agency assistance is warranted in order to ensure the wellbeing and safety of the animals and public. Coordinate, correspond, and contact partnering agencies such as local Police Department, Fire Department, Board of Health, County Animal Control, Neighborhood Code, Adult Protective Services and Child Protective Services as the situation requires. Photograph crime scene, animals, victims, potential evidence, environmental elements, and other photographs as required.
- Evaluate each situation to determine the appropriate behavioral approach to successfully work with the animal and public. Maintain confidentiality and integrity of case investigation.
- Apply elements of City Ordinance or State Statutes in case investigations to determine enforcement action. Conducts competent in-depth investigations on animal bites and more serious criminal and animal related civil violations. Determine when a situation is a possible crime scene and secure and process as necessary to maintain integrity and evidence of the scene. Collect, secure, and document evidence that supports City or State cases. Prepare paperwork for City and State cases as required by the Courts and Prosecutor's Office. Ensure all documentation, evidence, witness statements, photo logs, and other required information is accurate and concise in order for the Court or Prosecutor to determine if formal charges will be brought against the alleged individual. Testify in Court regarding investigations conducted and knowledgeable on rules of evidence.

- Utilize numerous databases in the field to assist in the quick identification of an animal, owner, and previous interactions with the animal owner or address. Complete field redemptions to eliminate the animal being brought into the shelter. Intake animal into the specialized database, collect money as required, and ensure the necessary paperwork is completed by the owner. Complete work in various software programs, Microsoft office databases, mapping programs, in the field and in an office environment. Maintain confidentiality of information acquired from any and all databases along with sensitive information on current animal cases.
- Monitor and assess the behavioral and medical health of all animals received into Animal Control custody. Begin treatment for medical conditions within their scope of training and authority. Administer subcutaneous vaccines upon intake to animals. Document all medications and vaccines in the shelter database, outlining dosage, frequency and timing. Inform the supervisor of concerns regarding the animal's health that requires immediate veterinary care and/or changes in behavior or medical condition.
- Evaluate incoming animal's health and behavior and determine the need for euthanasia as outlined by City Ordinance, shelter policies and/or as requested by the owner. Calculate the dosage and determine the appropriate route of euthanasia solution for each individual animal. Administer euthanasia solution in an accurate and humane manner in accordance with National Shelter Standards of Euthanasia. Assist supervisor and other technicians in the humane restraint and care of animals when not administering euthanasia. Implant or microchips in animals and/or assist as needed.
- Conduct inspections for all individuals or businesses requesting or renewing City Permits. Determine if all elements and requirements for permits have been met. Approve or revoke permit as deemed appropriate by City Ordinance and issue the required paperwork based on the determination. Document all findings into the specialized database.
- Handle dangerous and aggressive animals in a humane manner in accordance with shelter regulations on animal handling. Recognize and interpret animal body language and react accordingly to ensure appropriate and safe handling during interactions to minimize safety risks to employee, animal, public, and visitors. Document behavior and/or specific handling procedures to ensure safety of the animal and employee. Escort all animals received in the field, through depositories and/or in lobby from the field to the officer's vehicle or into appropriate kennels.
- Perform required and strict disinfecting protocols of equipment, building, and/or vehicles. Perform extensive disinfecting upon the threat or confirmation of a disease causing shelter wide outbreak being brought into the shelter.
- Process animals into the shelter either from the field, office, or depositories which includes but is not limited to: document the animals breed, age, sex, color, etc. along with the contact information for the owner / finder in a specialized database; photographs of all incoming animals; ensure that the unique shelter identification follows the animal and is placed on their kennel; locate and trace microchips and any other form of ID on the animal; attempt to contact owner to reunite the animal with its owner; ensure all animals have the proper food, water, bedding, and toys appropriate for the breed, weight and special conditions of each individual animal.
- Educate the public about animal care and training, process for lost and found animals, solutions for nuisance wildlife problems, departmental policies, animal control ordinances and State laws.
- Perform public speaking engagements as requested by the public or as required.
- Contacts supervisor as questions on policy/procedure arise.
