GENERAL ORDINANCE REPEALING AND REPLACING
SECTIONS 91.050 THROUGH 91.062 OF CHAPTER 91
ANIMAL CONTROL, OF THE CITY OF FORT WAYNE CODE OF ORDINANCES.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF FORT WAYNE, INDIANA, CODE OF ORDINANCES:

SECTION 1. That Chapter 91: Animal Control, Sections 91.050 through 91.062 of the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana Code of Ordinances are hereby repealed and replaced in its entirety as follows:

CHAPTER 91: ANIMAL CONTROL

REGISTRATION AND COMMERCIAL PERMITS

§ 91.050 PET REGISTRATION REQUIRED; EXCEPTION; TAGS; MICROCHIP IMPLANT.

(A) Any person owning, keeping, harboring or having custody of any dog or cat over the age of five months must obtain a pet registration for such animal; provided, however, that no pet registration shall be required of any animal welfare organization, municipal animal control facility or governmental agency, or guide dog. Animals belonging to those agencies or persons will be issued complimentary registration tags.

(B) A durable tag stamped with registration number and year of issuance will be provided to pet registration holders for each registration granted. Dogs and cats must wear their tags at all times on their collars, except when involved in any organized show, obedience demonstration, training situation or under the care of a licensed veterinarian.

(C) Any person owning an altered dog or cat may, as an alternative to an annual pet registration, obtain a microchip implant for the dog or cat for lifetime pet registration. This special permanent registration would be for the lifetime of the dog or cat for which they are the registered owner. Such residents shall not be required to annually purchase a new pet registration for the lifetime of such registered animals.

(1) Each lifetime registration will receive a durable stainless steel tag with a registration number for each registration granted. Dogs and cats must wear their tags at all times on their collars. Replacement tags are the responsibility of the owner at such time the tag becomes unreadable, owner must come into the shelter for a replacement.

(D) Any person owning any dog or cat which has been implanted with a microchip shall transfer the microchip documentation with the Department of Animal Control and national registry upon sale, trade, barter, gift or transfer of an animal. Any animal received by Fort Wayne Animal Care and Control with an untraceable tag or microchip due to an owners failure to keep contact information current for tracing with Animal Control, a national registry, or the veterinarian will be held three business days prior to disposition.

(E) Lifetime pet registrations are non- transferable.

('74 Code, § 6-7) (Ord. G-14-81, passed 9-22-81; Am. Ord. G-16-95, passed 6-13-95; Am. Ord. G-29-95, passed 11-21-95; Am. Ord. G-18-03, passed 5-27-03) Penalty, see § 91.999

§ 91.051 APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION OR PERMITS.

(A) Application for registration or permits may be made at the Department of Animal Control or designated facility, or by mail, and shall include the name, address of applicant, type of permit applied for, number and description of animal(s), information regarding sterilization and appropriate fee.

(B) Registration and permits are to be issued for a term of one year, with the exception of lifetime registration, commencing with the date of issuance. Microchip implants may be registered for the life of the animal with the Department of Animal Control. Owners must contact the Department of Animal Control with changes of address or telephone. Failure to keep contact information current may result in the inability of the department to contact an owner. Animals will be held three business days prior to disposition. The Department of Animal Control will consider the registered microchip and/or tag owner to be the legal owner.

(C) Upon issuance, the Department of Animal Control shall issue a registration or permit in written form, which includes the number of the registration or permit, type of registration or permit. In addition, the Department of Animal Control shall issue a durable tag stamped with the registration number and year of issuance for each pertinent registration. Additionally, a durable tag will be issued for an animal that has received a microchip implant upon national registration by the pet owner. The tag will have a corresponding number to that of the implanted microchip and will display a national, toll free, 24 hour, seven days per week telephone number for the purpose of animal and owner identification.

(D) The Department of Animal Control shall maintain records of the identifying registration/ permit number.

(E) It shall be unlawful for any owner of any dog or cat to fail to provide any dog or cat over the age of five months with current pet registration as provided in this section. The owner of any dog or cat, which dog or cat is over the age of three months, must also have in his possession a current rabies vaccination tag showing that such animal has been vaccinated against rabies as otherwise provided in § 91.075. Any owner of such animal who moves into the city for purposes of establishing a residence or residing or who becomes a resident as result of annexation shall have 30 days in which to obtain the permit required by this chapter.

('74 Code, § 6-17) (Ord. G-14-81, passed 9-22-81; Am. Ord. G-21-83, passed 7-26-83; Am. Ord. S-208-85, passed 11-12-85; Am. Ord. G-32-86, passed 8-26-86; Am. Ord. G-16-95, passed 6-13-95; Am. Ord. G-29-95, passed 11-21-95; Am. Ord. G-18-03, passed 5-27-03) Penalty, see § 91.999

(G) Circus, Animal Concession, Animal Event, and Commercial Animal Exhibit Permits.

(1) Fee $100

(2) Permits are to be issued for a term of one year, commencing with the date of issuance.

(3) Prior to engagements, permit holders will furnish the Department of Animal Control with a schedule of dates and times of exhibits or performances so the Department of Animal Control can perform periodic inspections.

(H) Omnibus Permit.

(1) Fee $200.00

(2) This permit shall allow the holder to operate a kennel or cattery, grooming shop, or a pet shop.

(3) The permit holder does not need to obtain individual permits in the aforementioned areas, but all requirements for each of the aforementioned permits shall be met before the Omnibus Permit may be granted. Animals owned as personal pets by the business owner or resident will not be considered registered under this permit.

(l) All permits will be issued after inspection approved by the Department of Animal Control, provided all requirements of this chapter are met.

('74 Code, § 6-19) (Ord. G-14-81, passed 9-22-81; Am. Ord. S-22-86, passed 2-25-86; Am. Ord. G-32-86, passed 8-26-86; Am. Ord G-32-89, passed 12-26-89; Am. Ord. G-29-95, passed 11-21-95; Am. Ord. G-18-03, passed 5-27-03; Am. Ord. G-14-04, passed 7-27-04) Penalty, see § 91.999

§ 91.053 APPEAL; DENIAL OR REVOCATION OF PERMIT.

(A) Any person who is denied a permit or whose permit is revoked may appeal the denial or revocation to the Director within 60 days of the date of the denial or revocation of the permit.

(B) All requests for appeals must be in writing and addressed to the Director; whereupon, the Director shall set the appeal for hearing within 45 days of the receipt of the written request.

('74 Code, § 6-20) (Ord. G-14-81, passed 9-22-81; Am. Ord. G-32-86, passed 8-26-86; Am. Ord. G-18-03, passed 5-27-03)

§ 91.054 KENNEL/CATTERY PERMITS.

(A) Any person owning or harboring more than one unaltered dog or one unaltered cat over the age of five months must apply for a kennel/cattery permit. At no time shall the number of dogs exceed five, number of cats exceed seven, or the total number of dogs and cats exceed seven, at one residential property.

(1) A resident staying within the numbers limits but exceeding one intact animal on the property may apply for a residential kennel permit. Applications will be followed by an inspection prior to issuance of the permit. Permits are valid for one year from date of issue and are the residential kennel permit holder's responsibility to renew. Residential kennel permits require eligibility and may be refused or revoked for cause.

(a) Initial application eligibility requires no more than three unaltered pets, no outdoor housing in the absence of the owner, suitable exercise space for the breed and number owned, no history of violations with FWACC, and all animals current on vaccinations.

(b) Cause for revocation may include but is not limited to: Animals running at large, substantiated neighborhood nuisance complaints, failure to maintain current permits, breeding without a breeders permit, failing to maintain current rabies vaccine status, and exceeding the number limits.

(B) Any person engaging in boarding dogs or cats for compensation must apply for a kennel/ cattery permit.

(C) Any exhibitor owning or harboring up to five unaltered dogs or cats over the age of five months may register all animals annually under an exhibitor's permit after showing proof of eight "Confirmation of Show Entry" forms issued by the American Kennel Club or United Kennel Club or other similar national registry association, for the 12 month period preceding registration. Such confirmation shall be issued by the show organizers and shall include owner's name and address, show date and location, animal's name, and class entry. Each such animal shall be issued a registration tag under the exhibitor's permit registration; an exhibitor's permit covers only those unaltered animals registered thereunder, but is not intended to preclude any other permit to which animal owners may be entitled or required to obtain under this section nor is it meant to replace any other permit which is required by this chapter. The exhibitor is required to be in compliance with all other state and local laws.

(D) Grandfather Clause. Animals owned or harbored and exceeding the ownership limits of this section at the time of passage of this law may be registered with the Department of Animal Control within 120 days of passage to be exempted from ownership limits. Animals owned or harbored in excess of these limits and not registered within this time frame will not be considered exempt.
