FRANKE PARK

A large, rectangular stone sign with a flat top, constructed from light-colored rectangular blocks. The sign is mounted on a base of darker, rough-hewn stone blocks. It is surrounded by a lush garden of colorful flowers, including red and yellow petunias, and some silver-leafed plants. A small, dark, rectangular light fixture is visible in the foreground, partially obscured by the flowers. The background consists of dense green trees and foliage.

A woman with dark hair and glasses, wearing a dark blazer, stands at a wooden podium with a microphone, addressing an audience. The audience is seated in white plastic chairs, seen from behind. The background is a wall with horizontal wood and white stripes. On the left, the Google logo is mounted. On the right, there is a white outline of the state of Indiana and the word "INDIANA" in white capital letters.
